

VODA Computer Systems wins Bronze in the Best Channel Marketing Initiative Category at the CDN 2009 Channel Elite Awards

Kamloops, BC – September 30, 2009

VODA Computer Systems wins Bronze in the Best Channel Marketing Initiative category at the CDN Channel Elite Awards. VODA Computer Systems was recognized for their marketing efforts. Over 200 people packed the Paramount Conference and Event Venue in North Toronto to see who would be the best of the best. The CDN Channel Elite Awards recognized the achievements of partners in the IT channel. In total there were 18 awards handed out. These awards were presented to the most creative and innovative solution providers in Canada.

This award honored the partner that created and executed a dynamic advertising, marketing campaign or event showcase. VODA Computers entered its 2009 Technology Showcase which was one of the largest events held in Southern British Columbia with over 200 end-users attending. The industries top manufacturers gathered in one place to present on their latest technology trends. It was very well received.

VODA is honored to be recognized alongside Softchoice Corporation and Long View Systems.

The Channel Elite Awards were created in 2002 to recognize the top IT solutions and the premier solution providers within the Canadian IT industry during the past 12 month period. This year the Channel Elite Awards were revamped to recognize the entire team behind the innovative solution.
